Activists Criticize Delay in ID Card Program Implementation

KARUL - Civil society activists on Saturday criticized the national unity government for failing to complete the national ID card program that was launched well over a year ago under former president Hamid Karzai.
The Ministry of Interior (MoI) has said that the new ID cards will only be issued upon the order of the National Security Council. Yet it is unclear why the program, which is intended to increase electoral transparency and rule of law more generally, has not yet been given the go-ahead. The Afghan Census Law has been passed and the law is clear about the issuance of national ID cards, we are ready from a technical point of view,” Chief Executive Abdullah Abdullah’s Deputy spokesman Asem Adrasi said. “The delay so far has been on account of the cabinet’s formation, after which both electoral reforms and the issuing of electronic ID cards will begin.” According to MoI spokesman Seddiq. Turkmenistan Asks U.S. for Military Aid to Address Afghan Border Instability

KARUL - Turkmenistan has approached the United States asking for military aid to help the country address instability on its border with Afghanistan, and Washington is trying to support the request, a senior American military official has said. The head of U.S. Central Command, General Lloyd Austin, told be-Camas this week and gave CENTCOM’s annual “posture state- ment,” which includes rare public pronouncements of the U.S. official military policy toward Central Asia. This year probably the most newsworthy statement was about Turkmenistan. While noting that “Turk- menistan’s declared policy of positive neutrality limits our opportunities for substantive military-to-military collabora- tion,” Austin also (More on Pn.2) –

He however, stated that the motive behind the abduction was still unclear. According to the police chief, the Taliban stopped six civilian vehicles last week in central Uruguay province and took them 20 passengers and drivers to an unknown place.

This was the second biggest abduction in the past five weeks after unknown gun- men abducted 31 passengers from Shah Joy district of Zabul when they were traveling on Kabul-Kandah- ar highway.

Despite many efforts by the Taliban and security opera- tions in Zabul, the fate of 31 abduction is still unknown. (More on Pn.4)

Stupid Comedy Programs of Television Channels!

The programs on our television channels are adding to the mental laughter and destruction of general humor. There are such programs on almost all the channels of our country. These so-called comedy programs, instead of providing the minds of people and providing them with a true air of relief and entertainment but unfortunately, they seem to be doing the exact opposite. In these programs, very cheap jokes are cut, people on the minds of the audience disturbed, good members of the society are being made fun of or ridiculed badly and other things are done or the name of comedy.Thanks to the democracy and freedom of speech, there is no one to stop them or do any kind of shack and destroy.

One of such examples was a comedy short clip shown on a private television which is a cartoon's channel with major audience of children. In this video, a donkey was shown with repeated sounds of the dog, a pig is shown who tries to do funny acts but in fact, these acts are much stupid and gross really make a negative message to the viewers and unfortunately. In this case, the majority of the viewers are children whose innocent minds are getting hurt by these jokes. In these jokes, the pig acts that the faves, tear his hand, tears a car and from then on the way and in the background, children of a school are shown laughing on these. It just makes a message that we should laugh on the misfortunes of others.

Another comedy program of a private television is many or less a parody of a similar program famous around the world and is shown on almost all the channels of the world. In its international version, innocent kids are cut to the people's program of the channel it's laziness and mirth making and it's more reactions on such occasions. Later, on the participants of the program are informed about the joke and are finished for their faults and in the way, the whole process ends smoothly. In the above, said similar act is done but it is a stupid and impudent manner creating a lot of problems to the general public. It is, a camera is hidden and one actor goes to the roads of Kabul city. Mostly, he is a pig or cat or any person trying to hit the people. He then takes a stick in his hand and starts chasing the people to hit them. Torsoing the stick, the people run and the actor chases them. In this background, the sounds of laughter are given which means that people should laugh on these acts innocent parody are disturbed, chanted and humiliated in front of the public. In another program, the actor goes out on the streets and pulls the caps, sweatshirts and clothes of people. Once again, people run away from them and in this way, try to run away from the evil of the actor. This program also gives a message that we should disturb others and laugh on other people.

Interminably, there are many famous and successful comedy programs but none of them to prepare the minds of people and provide them with a true air of relief and entertainment. People should not be disturbed. Such programs give good messages as how to respect the person, how to laugh, how to laugh on other people's misfortunes. On the other hand, our comedy programs give absolutely negative messages to the society. These are shown on almost all the channels of our country. The reason is that unless, the effects of these programs are not seen on the same to the benefit of our people.

In a single conclusion, in the process of making people laugh on the non-motivation or the thought of people, there are many problems. The person who makes the jokes and the character of people by giving them a positive message about the comedy and the person who enjoys them.

It is necessary that the producers and the owners of these television channels should be given strict criticisms of their work and should be asked to correct their programs from different television channels. We also required the Ministry of Cultural Affairs to interfere and check the contents of these programs.

Man – A Bloodthirsty Animal?

By Habibullah Zabi

"The first man who has armed himself in a piece of land, said: 'This is mine,' and found people needless to believe him, that man has been the plague of the world. From that time, war and murder, from that time, the man has known how to use a weapon, and from that time, the man has been so improved that he is dead. He used to have no weapons, he used to have no knowledge of how to command and how to obey, he used to obey the power of the people who had more power than himself. But now he is dead. He is dead. He is dead."

Russia saw that the state of human development associated with man's species, is a result of a human development, between the less-high philosophical of the men on the earth and the extreme of selfish civilization on the other... "Nothing is so gentle as man's primitive state, when plowed by nature at an equal distance from the dignity of force and the delirium of the weak."

It is believed that man shows a natural tendency towards virtuous. For instance, if a child watches a hero, he will have her and respect a sense of authority towards the civilized. Man's figure is shown in a Nilan, a man who is the son of a hero, a man of courage, a man who is the son of a hero, a man who is the son of a hero, and love heroine of the hero and the villains. In the end, a child's figure is a character in the image of a hero in the image of a hero who has been punished for his meekness. If we just consider the pride of the child's figure, which is the main factor of the villain's figure and the identity of the villain's character, the business of their action and the enjoyment of their hero. The actions of a child's figure are a result of the emotions that are aroused.

In another word, a man's virtue and morality is highly appreciated in society.

In addition, man has a natural orientation towards beauty. The most beautiful thing that man has is that he is a hero and a beautiful of a gorgeous gir, etc. will attract you deeply. On the contrary, one naturally senses a sorrow to an ugly figure. A child, who is born with a beautiful figure and beautiful of the most beautiful figure, will attract the attention of the pretty ones.

It is the inhuman nature of a man to be contemptuous of decent humanity and montiasty. It is believed that he who a gray fuy or a scene fraught with damage and injury. A wicked state, he who has a natural tendency against the natural human tendency and the natural human tendency against the natural human tendency... An inhuman individual who is detrimental to social harm and moral harm of our society, in the current state of the society, are illiterate, are selfish, are immoral, and the like. In fact, the current state of the society is not the natural state of the society, it is not the true state of the society. It is not a natural state of the society.

The number of bloodthirsty animals is growing and increasing. A child's figure is the worst of the animals. In this case, the child's figure is the worst of the animals.
