Order Suggests President Ghani Seeks to Consolidate Power

KABUL - President Ashraf Ghani has reportedly issued an order directing government institutions that all executive decrees and orders will from now on be overviewed and executed by the Presidential Palace's Office of Administrative Affairs. The move could mark an unprecedented step to consolidate power to the presidency.

Afghan political commentators have expressed shock and outrage at the news, calling it an obvious step toward authoritarianism. Others suggested the move exposed obvious tensions between the president and Chief Executive Abdullah Abdullah.

News of the order came in the form of a letter received by TOLOnews. In the first and second articles of the first paragraph of the order, it is stated that all ministries and government institutions are obliged to process all communications and documents.

190 Policewomen Assumes Duty after Training in Turkey

KARSH - The Ministry of Interior (MoI) announced Monday that 190 policewomen assumed duty by joining the Afghan National Police (ANP) force after completing their training in Turkey. The policewomen were deployed to Kabul last year to participate in training courses and recently returned to country to serve with the ANP force. A ceremony was organized in Kabul to celebrate the successful completion of the courses by the policewomen and their return to Afghanistan. The MoI said 111 of the policewomen would serve in capital Kabul while the remaining 79 would be deployed in the other provinces. The officials further added that 325 more female police officers would be deployed to Turkey to participate in training courses which would be conducted over a period of one year.

Head of the Gender Department in the Ministry of Interior (Gen) Helmat Shahi said the ministry is unable to achieve its main goal in the absence of female police officers. Gen. Shahi urged the newly elected women police officers to remain committed to upholding the rules and regulations of law enforcement as well as implementation of law. She added that women police officers are currently serving with the Ministry of Interior (MoI) which includes police officers, soldiers, and administrative clerks.

A further 750 acres of land have been promised for the program.

As an opportunity to do some extra work on weekends, your own enthusiasm may prompt you to take a chance that might present itself to you. Take it, Cancer. Not everyone could earn so many euros or dollars within six months. You might have a great year, but you might also open new doors that you might not have been able to see otherwise. Cancer, you might work too hard and then you yourself, it’s OK, but it’s not necessary to work all the time, and you need to take a break.

The best way to do that is to get involved in the most exciting and most interesting things that are happening around you. You could make a new friend in your neighborhood or your community, and get involved in a new activity, or even just start a new hobby or pastime.

Friends or relations who you expected to be sending you an application for a job or some other opportunity could propose a trip. This might seem like a lot of work, but it could be a great opportunity. You might make new friends while you’re away, or you might learn something new that could help you in the future, and you might just enjoy the experience of pursuing career or educational opportunities where you return.

Cancer (June 22-July 21)

Your work may be arACTIVE in electronic communication or online, and your voice will be loud and clear, says a source. You could be pretty powerful. You might be driven by a driven ambition to succeed, and your attention may be on your business or your career. You might be feelingrather than feeling. You might be feeling rather than feeling, and you might be acting like your business is more important than your personal life.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)

Money that you may have been having to use to buy a better living or working conditions could suddenly come into your hands, says a source. Scorpio, know how to put it to work in the most effective and satisfying way. You could put it into your mind quickly. You will probably want to be able to afford things, and you could consider your options carefully, and then choose the one that makes the most sense for you. Go to it.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

You rely on your tough exterior to help you out of difficult situations today, Aquarius. This is one day when you can learn to command without worrying too much about the outcomes. There’s a lot going on for you, and you may not even be able to do right now. Think of what you can understand well, and try to formulate your plan.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

You may make a strong impression on those who see you as you approach them, and you may feel confident in your ability to handle any challenge that comes your way. You might even be feeling like you can do anything that you set your mind to, and you might even be feeling like you can do anything that you want. This might be the right time for you to take a step back and think about what you really want to do.

Pixies (Feb. 19-March 20)

You may be feeling grateful for the way things work out, but you may also be feeling frustrated with the way things don’t. You may even be feeling like you can do anything you want. This might be the right time for you to take a step back and think about what you really want to do.

Kandahar Security Bolstered with Arrival of Warm Season

KANDAHAR CITY — The arrival of warm summer months could bolster Afghan security forces in the central province, already plagued by Islamic State attacks.

A police patrol was also sent to the southern district of Zabul, where Islamic State fighters have been active in the past.

In addition, the arrival of warm weather has allowed the Afghan military to deploy more personnel to the front lines, where they can conduct patrols and engage with enemy forces.

Several tactical pins were also established in the area, with the Afghan National Army (ANA) and the Provincial Reconstruction Team (PRT) working closely with local government officials and tribal leaders to ensure the area is safe for civilians.

In the coming weeks, the Afghan government is expected to increase both its military and police presence in the region, with the goal of improving security and stability for the local population.

In a statement on Thursday, the Ministry of Defense said the increase in security forces was a response to the growing threat posed by Islamic State fighters in the area.

The Afghan government has been working to strengthen its security forces in recent years, with the United States providing significant support in the form of equipment and training.

The increase in security forces is expected to help protect civilians and provide a sense of security for the local population.

Nurturing Peace and Brotherhood is a Crying Need

By Dilanzer Sherasri

It is imperative for a human being to be well reckoned of the society in which he or she is living. Some individuals are likely to be more likely for him to realize his character, position, privileges and duties in the way that he or she would be likely for him to practice a constructive role in the society. Sexually-political consciousness aids the individuals in the society to make up their relationship with each other and become able to sustain the social fabric of the society. It is the primary mission of the individual to sustain the social fabric of the society in the manner that he and she will be able to raise the status of the society to a higher level.

However, in the society, it is possible that a certain individual may not have a chance to contribute to the society as he or she is unable to fulfill the condition of political consciousness. In this case, the individual may lose the opportunity to contribute to the society.

In this regard, it has been said that a certain individual should not attempt to let the conflict be ended and go out of control. In this case, the conflict will be continued and the individual may lose the opportunity to contribute to the society.

One of the most important requirements for an individual to achieve political consciousness is to understand the importance of the political consciousness in the society. In this case, the individual may be able to contribute to the society.

However, it is necessary to note that the individual should not attempt to let the conflict be ended and go out of control. In this case, the conflict will be continued and the individual may lose the opportunity to contribute to the society.
