Govt. Praised for Women’s Cabinet Representation

KARUL - The Afghan Women’s Network (AWN) praised the unity government for inclusion of four women in various ministries and hoped that women would play significant role in tackling challenges being confronted by the country.

In a statement released on Tuesday, the AWN said that through continuous advocacy campaigns, four women have been one of the most intense operations conducted in the past 14 years. “I personally have lead the case, the claims that the government is not doing anything about...” (More on P4-5)

Kabul Wants Practical Steps to Initiate Peace Talks

6 Months on, Urugum PC Yet to Elect Admin Board

ASTANA - Afghanistan should be taken into the Shanghai Cooperation Organization (SCO) to help the country’s fight against drug production, Yakov Ivanov, head of the Federal Drug Control Service of Russia, suggested on Tuesday.

"I consider it important on behalf of the ministers to apply to the heads of the SCO member-states with the initiative to accept Afghanistan as a full member of the SCO due to the importance of its closer integration in the economic processes of the SCO for alternative development and elimination of drug production,” said V. Ivanov at the meeting of heads of the SCO anti-drug agencies.

According to the head of the Federal Drug Control Service of Russia, the SCO members are objectively interested, firstly, in ensuring regional security and, secondly, in acquiring the role of a sustainable and non-stop state for Afghan government,” Ivanov said.

Meanwhile, as it was previously reported, during the operation of the Western Allies the production of drugs in Afghanistan has been met by 40 times.

Afghanistan is an undisputed world leader in the production of narcotics.

Our Attitude Towards Social Evils

There have been many evils to human societies that have been disrupting the smooth development and improvement. Though there have been efforts to eradicate many of these evils, they are still present in many societies. One of the main reasons why evil persists in society is the lack of education. Education is the key to eradicating these evils, and it is time to focus on the main causes of these evils and implement solutions that can help society overcome these problems.

1. The existence of a strong community to support the poor is very important. There are many social evils that we need to get proper education from the beginning. The society that has this concept is very important.

10. The existence of a strong community to support the poor is very important. There are many social evils that we need to get proper education from the beginning. The society that has this concept is very important.

The main factors for the eradication of social evils are awareness, knowledge, understanding, and education. These factors are essential to overcome the social evils that are present in society. The government, civil society, and religious institutions should work together to create awareness and education about the social evils and their consequences.

It is important to note that the eradication of social evils is a continuous process. It requires the involvement of all stakeholders, including the government, civil society, religious institutions, and the general public. By working together, we can create a society that is free from social evils and promote the development and well-being of all its members.
