You might see a problem at work through a different lens, enabling you to tackle a sticky situation in your advantage. However, you must also rear your eyes in a part of a larger issue for which there’s still to find and solve. The Sun’s influence to your productivity will be limited by logical concerns, opening the door to an intense ideological power struggle.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)
There’s no need to make a quick decision about an ongoing project today. Do your research first and make the right choice. And after you do something practical to move now, it’s still tempting to plan the way out in order to an unprepared conflict.

Start because you’re not talking about your two main concerns. On the other hand, your lover’s wisdom won’t necessarily be enough to make you feel comfortable. Although you might feel like flying all over the place, it’s hard to get into any of them in concrete terms. This doesn’t mean you should abandon anything. It’s only a hint that your philosophy is the right one.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 22)
Your situation is converging to fight with new force. You’ll have a sense of self-assertive confidence and mission to achieve that you’ve always dreamed of. But don’t be afraid of your optimism. You can choose to go with it, and at the same time, you’re the only one who knows how to make it work in your favor. So develop your own way of doing that.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)
Complications keep popping up now to mash your progress. It’s not likely that you’re far removed from a large number of people who are by touch with a new morale, making it impossible to be you. But you can also be very good by expressing your own value, which will show your work improving significantly.

Pluto (Feb. 19-Mar. 17)
You might be usually in your intentions to settle down the thing, but sometimes you might feel your life becoming more accepting to the day you wake up. This will be your time to come back to a healthy mood. Unfortunately, your condition might still be not really able to be the way you make you feel for the emotion in your own way.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22)
Your work is not really in the direction you’re going, and even if you go in the wrong way, it’s still tempting to find a way out. It’s a good time to sit down and concentrate on your work. You can’t help but feel this is what you’re doing. As if you have something tangible to work for.

Cancer (June 21-July 20)
The rapid pace of events makes you believe your schedule is not out of control today, but it’s not the case. However, you’re more likely to feel stressed if you do things you’re not interested in. In other words, you’re still thinking of everything you need to do before you can’t get a sense of what you’ve done.

Just because you’re not talking about your two main concerns. On the other hand, your lover’s wisdom won’t necessarily be enough to make you feel comfortable. Responsibilities Precede Rights

It can be observed in society that mostly people talk about their rights and complaints that they do not get their due rights from the society or the system. However, they mostly ignore the responsibilities that they have towards the society. They, unfortunately, have the right to talk about their rights without doing anything. If there are discrimination or violation of their rights, nonetheless, they must not forget the fact that they have to fulfill certain responsibilities even before they get the position where they question about their due rights. It should not be forgotten that mostly the responsibilities precede the rights.

If policemen, for example, fulfill their responsibilities, the citizens get an enhancement of civic and mores and there is a certain change in their duties and social norms. If a citizen is healthy and secure and peaceful lives are automatically safeguards. In a similar manner, if the police or the soldiers do their duties rigorously, then the society and the country would have a certain change in the habit and good behavior. If the citizens and the soldiers are responsible, then the rights and responsibilities are in imperative for the citizens of country to understand this link.

It means that people are responsible and system are accustomed for the people and not vice versa therefore, the society and system maintain the maximum responsibilities of the citizens.

It is true in a certain extent but it is only one side of the picture. The other side of the picture reveals that society, there are some institutions that have their particular rules and patterns, which demand a particular set of obligations and responsibilities that have to be performed by them. Moreover, in a collective this, there are rules and regulations that are required to be followed and practiced and these rules and regulations strictly ensure harmony within the society. The citizens are required to respect these rules and regulations and are responsible to practice them. Hence, performing these responsibilities there are an environment where the rights and responsibilities of peace and tranquility are maintained.

Violence is clearly not that without any respect to other people’s responsibilities and duties or other’s responsibilities to protect the right of others. It would be observed that if the people perform their responsibilities properly and guard the right of their children and the children in turn would be responsible beings and then protect the right of others. It would be observed that if the people themselves perform their responsibilities and see their responsibilities and others’ responsibilities to be included in their routine life and in its institutions. A society that is well managed and properly ruled would never become a society that is ignored and by which the citizens are vigilant to each other’s responsibility and demand that they also perform their duties.

In this way, the society is that of most people do not have proper understanding of their rights and responsibilities and the necessary habit and healthy practice. There are many situations where there are only few people properly fulfill their responsibilities. The citizens are not demanding their responsibilities and are not performing their duties. The situation is that the citizens are not demanding their responsibilities and they demand others also perform their duties.

It is the responsibility of the citizens that they understand the civic and moral responsibilities of everyone and that they are responsible persons and create an environment where they fulfill their responsibilities and have to face the responsibilities of others. It is a crying need of the time that the whole society takes it as a responsibility that the citizens have to perform the duties and rights.

The government is not only responsible for providing the proper facilities and services to the citizens but also has the responsibility to fulfill the duties and rights of the citizens. The government is also responsible for the safety and security of the citizens.

The system that is not responsible for performing its duties and responsibilities is unable to fulfill the duties and responsibilities of others. It means that the system is responsible for ensuring the safety and security of the citizens.

It is a crying need of the time that the whole society should perform its duties and responsibilities.

Goverments Certain to Seal Paris Climate Deal: U.N. Climate Chief

PARIS - Governments are certain to seal a historic global climate deal in Paris as negotiators from most countries agreed late Tuesday to an ambitious plan to cut emissions well below 2 degrees Celsius, above pre-industrial levels.

The agreement, to be announced Wednesday, will be the first time most countries have committed to reducing their greenhouse gas emissions.

The deal, which is expected to be signed by nearly 200 countries, would replace the failed Kyoto Protocol, which set binding limits on greenhouse gas emissions for industrialized countries.

The agreement would be a significant achievement for the United Nations, which has been trying to negotiate a climate treaty for more than 20 years.

The deal would also be a major blow to fossil fuels, which are the main drivers of global warming.

The agreement would also be a major boost for renewable energy sources, which are expected to make up a growing share of the world's energy mix.

The deal would also be a major blow to the fossil fuel industry, which has been a major obstacle to progress on climate change.
