Window Turn of Opportunity into Highway of Cooperation; Chani’s Letter Reads

T he politics of survival is the most brutal of the world countries, with their quality of play: it is played out following a meticulous practice, most of time, energy and resources are allocated to fulfilling the need of another state behind barbed wire. The security situations go to hell, instead of inventing strong of security. This has led to an exchange of short-term benefits. In Afghanistan and Pakistan, neighbors whose history is marred with ever-changing relations, Afghanistan has always been on the sidelines waiting to see who is passing through. It is a dominant perception that the faction of Taliban operating against the central government is the bedrock of the leaders of the Afghan land is said against Pakistan's interest. In that pursuit NASR and M-16 offered an arm and a leg that men of check and obey security noises of neighboring country in Afghanistan which is regarded disgraceful to accommodate a big step. Afghanistan hasn’t been taking the brunt of the dictation and – couldn’t turn itself into the turn of the perception. Their effort in order to lay down with ever-building of Pakistan. Former Gen. Malalai MSAP, Deputy National Security Advisor – Afghanistan would this statement assist of Pakistan, amidst pertinence, truth? What kind of assurance is needed to bridge the deterrent alliance and confidences between the two neighboring countries? The interaction between the two states are pivotal to their development, but it is to be placed on top priority. At present time a lane is passing through serious and serious-very serously, from the deadly attack of government departments and foreign diplomats. The capital and the escorted being urged through wave of lethal attacks that to lead more civilian casualties. Taliban launched Spring Offensive in late April followed by a string of deadly attacks in Afghanistan, particularly attacks on government buildings. President Ashraf Ghani in the other hand has been urged Pakistan authorities to take action against militants who are responsible for the recent spate of violence in Afghanistan. Afghanistan wants Pakistan to use pressure over Afghan Taliban including seizure of assets and funds and deprivation from secrets in Pakistan. Formerly, President Ghani has dispatched a copy letter to Pakistan. Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif mentioning the usa and don’t is led to strength- ening bilateral relation. The letter is in three-page document with the following: within this relationship there is no possibility to find the issue of border force impacted. The third and final page has his dam. In a confidential letter to Pakistan, ‘Ghani has not set a date of demands in context of border force issues and to the primary issue being on Afghanistan’s security. In the aforesaid letter Ghani listed the following demands: one states double further of real play under the standing of the Taliban offensive, a directive by the military leadership that the enemy attacks on Afghanistan should be ceased at once, both civil and military authorities that the directive is carried out. As a result, the Taliban have been forced to go into negotiations, but both parties are equally concerned to reach a durable peace, which is the key to secure both countries. The parties have agreed to exchange prisoners and discuss the future of the war in Afghanistan. The agreement was reached during the high-level talks between the two countries. The talks were aimed at reducing violence, ending the current border tensions, and finding a peaceful solution to the conflict. The signatories of the agreement are optimistic that it will lead to a lasting peace in Afghanistan, providing a stable environment for economic and social development. The agreement is also seen as a positive step towards improving the bilateral relationship between Pakistan and Afghanistan.

Health Officials Struggle to Stem Tide of Illegal Tobacco

Kabul - The Ministry of Public Health (MoPH) observed World No Tobacco Day on Sunday by promoting an initiative to combat the illegal tobacco trade and declared illegal tobacco to be illegal in Afghanistan.

According to ministry officials, the proliferation of smuggled tobacco products in the country is a result of smuggling from neighboring countries. They said the ministry is taking serious action to combat the illegal tobacco trade in Afghanistan.

The ministry has launched a campaign to educate the public about the dangers of smoking and the benefits of quitting. They have also increased the number of raids and inspections to detect and seize illegal tobacco products.

The campaign aims to raise awareness among the public about the negative effects of smoking and to encourage them to quit. The ministry has also provided information on the availability of smoking cessation programs and services.

MoPH has also urged the public to report any incidents of illegal tobacco trade to the authorities.

The ministry has also partnered with various organizations and institutions to promote non-smoking and healthy living.

The campaign is part of the ministry's efforts to reduce the prevalence of smoking in Afghanistan. The ministry has set a target of reducing the smoking rate by 50% by 2025.
