The Road to Good Governance

Recently, there have been debates, in national and international circles, about the challenges facing the country. However, it has been observed that Afghanistan has not been able to offer even elementary security of life to majority of its people and has not been able to find a solution for various political endeavors in a single country. It is important to note that the government of Afghanistan has not been able to ensure basic needs of the people. There is a lack of proper infrastructure in the country, and this has led to the deterioration of the society. The situation has become more complicated with the war and the political instability.

The capacity of government is governed by its potential to provide the basic necessities of life to the people. In addition, it must be mentioned that the government should have a good understanding of the 内容被截断了。
