28 Insurgents Killed in US Drone Strike

LALABAD - At least 28 Taliban fighters were killed in a U.S. drone strike in eastern Nangarhar province on Tuesday, local officials said.

The strike took place in the Hasaka Minah district of the province after a U.S. drone targeted the Taliban insurgents, a spokesman for Provincial Governor, Ahmad Zia Abdulah said.

"The insurgents were all gathered in the area when they were attacked. There were no civilian casualties in the strike," he said.

He added: "Efforts are being made to receive further details about the strike." The Taliban have not yet commented on the recent incident.

Hasaka Minah district is a known insurgent area in which the insurgents have activities and frequently attack the local security forces.

KARUL - A group of unknown gunmen opened fire inside the Kabul Psychiatric Hospital on Tuesday night before being overthrown. According to the police, the incident took place around 11 p.m. local time when a group of well-dressed young men broke through the Emergency Department’s entrance door and started shooting.

No one was injured but equipment inside the hospital in west Kabul was damaged.
