US Stresses Early Resumption of Afghan Peace Parleys

KABUL - Pakistan’s national security advisor, Sartaj Aziz, is expected to visit Afghanistan amid strained relations between Kabul and Islamabad. Besides attending the Regional Economic Cooperation Conference on Afghanistan (RECCA) summit which will start on Thursday, the Pakistani diplomat is said to help improve the relations between Afghanistan and its neighbouring countries, Pakistan’s media reported on Wednesday.

The visit was preceded following a spate of attacks in Kabul while the Afghan intelligence sources blamed it on Pakistan. Meanwhile, officials at the Afghan Presidential Palace said Afghanistan has delated some aid to the Pakistani government that could have paved the way for insurgent networks in that country. According to Afghan officials, the fundamental cause of tension with Islamabad is the existence of insurgent groups, officials on Pakistan-Afghanistan relations said.

Sartaj Aziz to Visit Kabul, Ease Tensions

KABUL - Senior Afghan government officials and representatives from the international donor community met in Kabul on Wednesday. It was the last of three meetings aimed at bringing the role of UN officials to Afghanistan. The Tripartite Security Commission was established following Security Council Resolution 2320 of 16 March 2017, which renewed the mandate of the UN Assistance Mission in Afghanistan (UNAMA). A statement from the ministry said a full examination of the role, structure, and activities of all United Nations entities in Afghanistan was required to full implements, officials on Pakistan-Afghanistan relations said.

Govt., Donors Support UN’s Role in Afghanistan

KABUL - Pakistan’s national security advisor, Sartaj Aziz, is expected to visit Afghanistan amid strained relations between Kabul and Islamabad. Besides attending the Regional Economic Cooperation Conference on Afghanistan (RECCA) summit which will start on Thursday, the Pakistani diplomat is said to help improve the relations between Afghanistan and its neighbouring countries, Pakistan’s media reported on Wednesday. The visit was preceded following a spate of attacks in Kabul while the Afghan intelligence sources blamed it on Pakistan. Meanwhile, officials at the Afghan Presidential Palace said Afghanistan has delated some aid to the Pakistani government that could have paved the way for insurgent networks in that country. According to Afghan officials, the fundamental cause of tension with Islamabad is the existence of insurgent groups, officials on Pakistan-Afghanistan relations said.

Mumtaz Super

Call any number in Afghanistan

Frais /15 sec

With best international call rates to

*Call cheaper rates to USA, Canada, China, India and Pakistan.

Migrate to Mumtaz Super

Existing Customer type: P and send to 3378
New Customer type: F and send to 376

Email: thedailyafghanistan@yahoo.com
Phone: 0939 (795) 05819/777 05819

www.thedailyafghanistan.net
Clashes Between Taliban Fighters Leave 18 Dead

HERAT - At least 18 Talib- an fighters were killed in fresh clashes in the city, according to an official said on Wednesday.

He said the clash erupted between the supporters of late Aksar Khan, a vocal opponent of the Taliban, and the followers of Maulavi Moheen, who succeeded the group’s ex- supreme leader, he added.

The clash erupted at a meeting in Herat city, a local source said.

Hundreds in Pakia over E-ID Cards Issue

KARLS - Some women have complained to the local authorities in the area of Pakia about the E-ID card issue, which has led to a number of complaints.

The authorities have been contacted by the women who said they did not receive the cards.

Young Girl, Boy Commit Suicide in Balkh, Samangan

The incident took place in the city of Balkh, a local source said.

Afghan Villagers Skeptical as U.S. Reopens Probe into 2013 Killings

MARDAN SHARIF - The victims of the U.S. military, first reported last week, has reopened a probe into the deaths of 18 Afghan civilians who were killed by American soldiers on April 12, 2013. Last November, the official investigation into the incident ended.

The victims of the U.S. military, first reported last week, has reopened a probe into the deaths of 18 Afghan civilians who were killed by American soldiers on April 12, 2013. Last November, the official investigation into the incident ended.

OutlookHoroscope

Aquarius (Mar. 21-Apr. 19)

You are having a lot of things of your hands that you feel it is not going well. You are not getting along with your friends. You are feeling anxious and stressed. You need to take a break from your work and try to relax.

Cancer (June 21-July 20)

You may feel like hiding your head but that’s not the answer. You need to come out of your comfort zone and face your fears. You are feeling stuck and need to move forward.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 21)

Demonstrating your leadership skills could be the key to success. You can use your leadership qualities to guide others. You are feeling confident and ready to take on new challenges.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

You are feeling very confident and ready to take on new challenges. You are feeling inspired and ready to move forward.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

You have a strong desire to succeed. You are feeling very confident and ready to take on new challenges. You are feeling very motivated.

Just like King Midas everything you touch turns to gold. You are feeling very confident and ready to take on new challenges. You are feeling very motivated.

On the contrary, some things that go too far to be good are probably bad. You are feeling very confident and ready to take on new challenges. You are feeling very motivated.

Jupiter in Scorpio (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

You have a strong desire to succeed. You are feeling very confident and ready to take on new challenges. You are feeling very motivated.

On the contrary, some things that go too far to be good are probably bad. You are feeling very confident and ready to take on new challenges. You are feeling very motivated.
Recent attacks have destroyed the sanctity of bridges network in which it is possible to travel and reach the_civilian_stall_soldiers. However, the Pentagon reportedly received tales reports that_Hakim had used tactics to_literally make bridges and roads path. We have expressed our deep concern to the government of_Pakistan that the attacks on bridges and roads as a result of suicide bombings by the_TTP may be considered as another source of failure and weakness of Pakistan in Afghanistan and the region. It has also been reported that the attacks on bridges and roads are_a direct threat to the safety of civilians and the economy of the region.

By Hujaltulla Zia

It is a sense of fear and dissatisfaction in the air. Our blinding nation is attacked heavily by the Taliban insurgents, who are attacking our nation with a series of terrorist attacks. The current political turmoil and high graph of civilian casualties have alarmed the international community. The men's fundamental rights are violated to a large extent. With the help of the Afghan National Army (ANA), the Taliban is conducting targeted attacks. The new leader of the Taliban, Mullah Akhtar Mansour, split apart emerged from the Taliban office. Concerned officials have confirmed that his aim is to take power and to impose religion on the country.

The series of attacks, mostly in capital Kabul, led to tension between Afghan-Pakistani relations. The Afghan government wants to ensure the safety and security of its citizens in Pakistan. The Pakistani's involvement in terrorist acts for a long time, denounced on the cooperation of Islamabad and折腾ed attacks.

The attacks in Pakistan's cities, especially in Karachi, have caused a rise in insurance rates. The people are afraid of their lives and property. The government strongly condemned the terrorist attacks that targeted Afghan people living in Pakistan. The attacks were condemned by the UN Security Council.

The security is very urgent need of Afghanistan, peace, and stability. The Taliban is a serious threat to the peace and security of the region. We need to take serious steps to prevent the attacks and protect the people. The Taliban has no place in our society. We need to work together to fight against the Taliban and ensure peace in our country.

Widespread Despondency Servs Migration

By Asmatarya

The life of motherland is timeless and insurmountable. Its warmth is deeply realized when a person is exposed to a different environment. The country's growing violent conflict has deteriorated the human rights situation and stability of this piece of land. Peace is essential to the critical element. Afghanistan and Pakistan are two countries that were once united and now divided. The consequences of terrorism and insurgency are present in the region. The government has been struggling to provide peace and stability in the region.

Every modern and modern order system for asking for the support of peace and stability and the government is working hard to ensure the peace and stability in the region.

A significant number of refugees constitute Afghan population. Each of us is responsible for the country's future. We need to work together to ensure the peace and stability in the region.

Asmatarya

Chairman / Editor-in-Chief: Dr. Hussain Yass
Vice-Chairman: Kazim Ali Gulzari
Email: outlookafghanistan@gmail.com
Phone: 0933 (799) 0805197/77-0050197
www.outlookafghanistan.net

The views and opinions expressed in the articles are those of the authors and do not reflect the views or opinions of the Daily Outlook Afghanistan.
11) Street protests.

Impossible to say how many, but the number was very large. People gathered in large numbers. The police were calmed and engaged in negotiations. The negotiations lasted about an hour. After the negotiations, the police withdrew clearly and the crowd dispersed. The police did not use force to disperse the crowd. It is not clear what the purpose of the protest was. There are reports of 500 to 1,000 people.

12) GM government.

The government did not react to the protest. The officials did not make any public statements about the incident. It is not clear what the government's position is.

13) 2014 election.

It is not clear what the election results were. It is not clear what the government's position is. It is not clear what the public's reaction was. It is not clear what the implications of the election are.

14) 2015 election.

It is not clear what the election results were. It is not clear what the government's position is. It is not clear what the public's reaction was. It is not clear what the implications of the election are.
Dadullah Besieged in Zabul as Taliban Cracks Widens

KARUL - Some Taliban sources on Wednesday said supporters of the group's new supreme leader Mullah Akhtar Mansour had besieged a senior Taliban military commander Mullah Mohammed Daud Khan in the Afghan district of southern Zabul province.

The sources said differences between supporters of the two intensified after Daud Khan refused to pledge allegiance to Mansour as the Taliban's new leader to replace the late founder and longtime chief Mullah Mohammad Omar.

After Omar's death, the Taliban leadership council elected Mullah Mansour as the new leader, but Omar's family and a number of supporters opposed the election. Some reports say supporters of Mansour and Daud Khan have fought several clashes since Mansour's leadership issue in Khab Khair district during the past one week. Mansour reportedly sent a delegation to Daud Khan asking him to pledge allegiance to the new supreme leader, but Daud Khan refused.

A commander of Daud Khan's group, who wished to be identified, told Radio Free Europe/Radio Liberty (RFE/RL) that the Taliban were planning an operation to take over the area.

MISERIES OF THE AFGHAN REFUGEES RISKING THEIR LIVES TO REACH EUROPE CONTINUE

KARUL - As Europe continues a rapidly escalating migration crisis driven by war, a large number of Afghan refugees and asylum seekers are still suffering difficult conditions in their European countries.

Some of these Afghan youths have overcome challenges to reach Europe. One of these is Faryab Daud, an Afghan refugee in Austria.

FARYAB - Faryab, 24, originally from Zabul province in Afghanistan, was reunited last night in Vienna with his older brother, Zabiullah. Faryab was granted admission to Austria after he successfully completed his education in Afghanistan.

AFGHAN REFUGEES FOUND IN SEALLED TRUCK IN AUSTRIA

KARUL - Austrian police on Wednesday found 24 Afghan refugees in a sealed truck, whose doors and windows were welded shut.

Austrian media outlets said on Wednesday that police officers, who found the truck on Monday night, rounded up the refugees, aged between 16 and 17, who were in danger of suffocation.

ZABANI - Customs officials in southeastern Nangarhar province claim their department's revenue has increased by one billion Afghanis during the first month of 2016 compared to the corresponding period last year.

WASAIL - The Customs Department head, said more than five billion Afghanis' goods were exported last year.

SULTAN - A company in the southern city of Kandahar has launched a new project to support small and medium-sized enterprises.

Sultani said 30 percent of the total revenue came from the export of fresh produce, and 10 percent came from the export of goods to neighboring countries.

Sultani said the company is also planning to establish a small and medium-sized enterprise center to support small and medium-sized enterprises in the area.