Pakistan, Afghanistan Agree to End Blame Game:

KARUL - Pakistan and Afghanistan have agreed to end a blame game over a spate of attacks and said they will instead work to end hostilities. The leaders of the two countries have been at odds over a series of attacks in recent weeks, with both countries blaming the other for the violence.

The leaders met in Kabul on Monday, where they reaffirmed their commitment to end the violence and work towards peace. They also agreed to cooperate in the fight against terrorism and extremism.

The leaders also discussed other issues, including trade, energy, and security. They agreed to work towards increasing trade between the two countries and to facilitate the movement of goods and people.

The leaders also made a joint statement condemning the recent attacks in the region. They said they would work together to ensure that such attacks do not happen again.

In addition to the leaders, representatives from various sectors, including the military, police, and civil society, also attended the meeting.

The meeting was seen as a significant step towards improving relations between the two countries and promoting peace in the region.

The leaders of the two countries are scheduled to meet again in the near future to discuss further progress on the issues discussed in this meeting.

Outlook Horoscope

Aries (Mar. 21-Apr. 20)

It feels as if you have one last chance to build on this year’s achievements. If you’ve been working on something,
then this is the time to get something done. Don’t be too hasty about it, however, as this period is fraught with problems. You need to be patient and\nmindful of your surroundings.

Taurus (Apr. 21-May 20)

You know that you should be planning for your future now, however, you can’t help but procrastinate. You’re feeling a bit stressed about the future and it’s keeping you from focusing on the present. Try to stay positive and\nlook to the future with hope.

Gemini (May 21-June 21)

You’re trying to make new friends these days, but your past might not actually be in your best interests. You need to consider the consequences of your decisions. Try to stay true to your values and beliefs.

Cancer (June 22-July 22)

You’re on a daily grind today, however, you’re feeling a bit overloaded. Don’t worry, though, as your energy is building and you’ll be able to handle the stress.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22)

You’ve had a lot to deal with recently, but now it seems like things are starting to settle down. You’re feeling positive and optimistic about the future.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

You’re working hard today, but you’re not too sure if you’re doing the right thing. You need to take a step back and think about what you’re doing.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22)

You’re standing on shaky ground today, and you need to be careful. You might need to reconsider your decisions.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 22)

All this time you’ve been working so hard, but you’re starting to feel burnt out.
You might need to take a break and relax.

Sagittarius (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

What seemed impossible last week
now seems highly likely. It’s tempting to think that everything is possible,
but you need to be realistic.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 20)

You’re not particularly confident today,
but you’re feeling good about things.
You’re ready to take on any challenge.

Aquarius (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

You’re ready to take on new projects, but you need to be careful not to overcommit yourself.

Pisces (Feb. 19-Mar. 20)

You’re ready to break old patterns that prevent you from experiencing love as fully as possible. You’re tired of being hurt, but you’re not sure how to move on. You need to find a new direction.

Empowering Afghan women to lead the future of their country's education is a long-term and dehydrated process, and the actions taken during this period are the key to shaping the future of Afghanistan. The Afghan government is implementing policies that are aimed at paying tribute to the women who have been displaced by war and violence. These women are leaders in their communities and are playing a significant role in rebuilding the country. The women are being trained in various fields such as technology, entrepreneurship, and leadership.

The government is also working towards empowering women in the workforce, providing them with access to education and healthcare services. The goal is to create a better future for Afghan women and their families.

The emergence of solar power in Afghanistan has been a significant development in recent years. The country has abundant solar resources, and the government is working towards harnessing this potential to provide clean and affordable energy to the population. The government has set ambitious targets to increase the share of solar power in the country's energy mix.

The government has also introduced policies to encourage solar power generation, such as tax incentives and feed-in tariffs. These policies have helped to attract foreign investment and promote the growth of the solar industry in Afghanistan. The solar industry in Afghanistan has grown rapidly in recent years, and there are now several solar power plants operating in the country.

KARUL - Insurgents on Sunday asked the government to honor its pledge to the President to return control of the border being faced by the private sector and industry.

They complained the current and previous administrations were failing to deliver on their promises about domestic products and reduction in prices.

The issues were raised at a conference titled "National Conference in Support of Afghanistan Industries, Challenges and Solutions," held jointly by the Ministry of Commerce and Industries, the Afghanistan Chamber of Commerce and Industries (ACCI) and the Afghan-Pakistan Investment Support Agency. (APISA) Hamid Reza Bay, the commerce minister, said the conference was aimed at evaluating the growth challenges facing industries and businesses and resolving them. He said his ministry had prepared legislation on instruments and industries and was also considering other issues. (More on P.69)
