Pak Role Crucial in Afghan Peace: US

WASHINGTON - Calling Pakistan an important player in the Afghan peace, the White House has said that its role in facilitating reconciliation process between Taliban and Afghanistan will be discussed between US President Barack Obama and Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif in their meet next week.

"We already know that Pakistan has played an important role in trying to facilitate reconciliation talks between the Taliban and the Afghan government," White House Press Secretary Josh Earnest told reporters on Thursday. In fact, one of the early rounds of those talks actually took place in Pakistan, were hosted by the Pakistani government, he said.

"I don't want to be in a position of speaking for the Pakistan government, but it's the President's view that everybody in that region recognises the important benefits associated with progress on reconciliation talks," he said in response to a question.

The president is going to continue to use the influence that he has with the Afghan government to encourage them to pursue these talks.

"I think that is fundamentally something that the Afghan government does not need a lot of encouragement to pursue. That's something that they themselves are interested in," he said. At a... (More on P 1-4)

Abdullah, NATO Commander Discuss Military Cooperation

KABUL - Chief Executive Officer of the National Unity Government (EUZ) Abdullah, Abdullah met with the commander of US and NATO forces in Afghanistan General John Campbell on Saturday where they discussed a number of issues with the main focus being on the future of military cooperation between Afghanistan and the international forces.

Abdullah... (More on P 6-7)

Karzai Criticizes Ongoing US Military Presence

KABUL - Former Afghan president Hamid Karzai on Saturday criticized the decision of US President Barack Obama to delay the drawdown in troops and maintain current levels through 2016.

In a statement issued by Karzai he said the presence of foreign troops had not only failed to stamp out terrorism but in fact adding to the problem in war-ravaged Afghanistan.

Karzai said the Afghan people have had 14 years of foreign troops presence in their country and hoped for last peace and the elimination of terrorism but that this has not happened, instead insurgency has strengthened.

The reference to the Strategic Security Agreement (SSA) signed between the Afghan government and US in September 2014, Karzai said... (More on P 7-9)
Grave Human Rights Violation Reported in Kunduz

The decade of war has turned Afghanistan into a barren land. Inhabitants are forced to stand in the middle of the desert due to a lack of food, water, and healthcare. Many villages have been destroyed, and the people are left to fend for themselves. The situation is desperate, and the government seems to be doing nothing to improve it. The people of Kunduz are suffering greatly, and their voices are not being heard.

By Asmyatari

The decades of war have turned Afghanistan into a barren land. Afghans are forced to stand in the middle of the desert due to a lack of food, water, and healthcare. Many villages have been destroyed, and the people are left to fend for themselves. The situation is desperate, and the government seems to be doing nothing to improve it. The people of Kunduz are suffering greatly, and their voices are not being heard.

By Asmyatari

The decades of war have turned Afghanistan into a barren land. Afghans are forced to stand in the middle of the desert due to a lack of food, water, and healthcare. Many villages have been destroyed, and the people are left to fend for themselves. The situation is desperate, and the government seems to be doing nothing to improve it. The people of Kunduz are suffering greatly, and their voices are not being heard.

By Asmyatari

The decades of war have turned Afghanistan into a barren land. Afghans are forced to stand in the middle of the desert due to a lack of food, water, and healthcare. Many villages have been destroyed, and the people are left to fend for themselves. The situation is desperate, and the government seems to be doing nothing to improve it. The people of Kunduz are suffering greatly, and their voices are not being heard.

By Asmyatari

The decades of war have turned Afghanistan into a barren land. Afghans are forced to stand in the middle of the desert due to a lack of food, water, and healthcare. Many villages have been destroyed, and the people are left to fend for themselves. The situation is desperate, and the government seems to be doing nothing to improve it. The people of Kunduz are suffering greatly, and their voices are not being heard.

By Asmyatari

The decades of war have turned Afghanistan into a barren land. Afghans are forced to stand in the middle of the desert due to a lack of food, water, and healthcare. Many villages have been destroyed, and the people are left to fend for themselves. The situation is desperate, and the government seems to be doing nothing to improve it. The people of Kunduz are suffering greatly, and their voices are not being heard.

By Asmyatari

The decades of war have turned Afghanistan into a barren land. Afghans are forced to stand in the middle of the desert due to a lack of food, water, and healthcare. Many villages have been destroyed, and the people are left to fend for themselves. The situation is desperate, and the government seems to be doing nothing to improve it. The people of Kunduz are suffering greatly, and their voices are not being heard.

By Asmyatari

The decades of war have turned Afghanistan into a barren land. Afghans are forced to stand in the middle of the desert due to a lack of food, water, and healthcare. Many villages have been destroyed, and the people are left to fend for themselves. The situation is desperate, and the government seems to be doing nothing to improve it. The people of Kunduz are suffering greatly, and their voices are not being heard.

By Asmyatari

The decades of war have turned Afghanistan into a barren land. Afghans are forced to stand in the middle of the desert due to a lack of food, water, and healthcare. Many villages have been destroyed, and the people are left to fend for themselves. The situation is desperate, and the government seems to be doing nothing to improve it. The people of Kunduz are suffering greatly, and their voices are not being heard.

By Asmyatari

The decades of war have turned Afghanistan into a barren land. Afghans are forced to stand in the middle of the desert due to a lack of food, water, and healthcare. Many villages have been destroyed, and the people are left to fend for themselves. The situation is desperate, and the government seems to be doing nothing to improve it. The people of Kunduz are suffering greatly, and their voices are not being heard.

By Asmyatari

The decades of war have turned Afghanistan into a barren land. Afghans are forced to stand in the middle of the desert due to a lack of food, water, and healthcare. Many villages have been destroyed, and the people are left to fend for themselves. The situation is desperate, and the government seems to be doing nothing to improve it. The people of Kunduz are suffering greatly, and their voices are not being heard.

By Asmyatari

The decades of war have turned Afghanistan into a barren land. Afghans are forced to stand in the middle of the desert due to a lack of food, water, and healthcare. Many villages have been destroyed, and the people are left to fend for themselves. The situation is desperate, and the government seems to be doing nothing to improve it. The people of Kunduz are suffering greatly, and their voices are not being heard.

By Asmyatari

The decades of war have turned Afghanistan into a barren land. Afghans are forced to stand in the middle of the desert due to a lack of food, water, and healthcare. Many villages have been destroyed, and the people are left to fend for themselves. The situation is desperate, and the government seems to be doing nothing to improve it. The people of Kunduz are suffering greatly, and their voices are not being heard.

By Asmyatari

The decades of war have turned Afghanistan into a barren land. Afghans are forced to stand in the middle of the desert due to a lack of food, water, and healthcare. Many villages have been destroyed, and the people are left to fend for themselves. The situation is desperate, and the government seems to be doing nothing to improve it. The people of Kunduz are suffering greatly, and their voices are not being heard.

By Asmyatari

The decades of war have turned Afghanistan into a barren land. Afghans are forced to stand in the middle of the desert due to a lack of food, water, and healthcare. Many villages have been destroyed, and the people are left to fend for themselves. The situation is desperate, and the government seems to be doing nothing to improve it. The people of Kunduz are suffering greatly, and their voices are not being heard.

By Asmyatari

The decades of war have turned Afghanistan into a barren land. Afghans are forced to stand in the middle of the desert due to a lack of food, water, and healthcare. Many villages have been destroyed, and the people are left to fend for themselves. The situation is desperate, and the government seems to be doing nothing to improve it. The people of Kunduz are suffering greatly, and their voices are not being heard.

By Asmyatari

The decades of war have turned Afghanistan into a barren land. Afghans are forced to stand in the middle of the desert due to a lack of food, water, and healthcare. Many villages have been destroyed, and the people are left to fend for themselves. The situation is desperate, and the government seems to be doing nothing to improve it. The people of Kunduz are suffering greatly, and their voices are not being heard.

By Asmyatari

The decades of war have turned Afghanistan into a barren land. Afghans are forced to stand in the middle of the desert due to a lack of food, water, and healthcare. Many villages have been destroyed, and the people are left to fend for themselves. The situation is desperate, and the government seems to be doing nothing to improve it. The people of Kunduz are suffering greatly, and their voices are not being heard.

By Asmyatari

The decades of war have turned Afghanistan into a barren land. Afghans are forced to stand in the middle of the desert due to a lack of food, water, and healthcare. Many villages have been destroyed, and the people are left to fend for themselves. The situation is desperate, and the government seems to be doing nothing to improve it. The people of Kunduz are suffering greatly, and their voices are not being heard.

By Asmyatari

The decades of war have turned Afghanistan into a barren land. Afghans are forced to stand in the middle of the desert due to a lack of food, water, and healthcare. Many villages have been destroyed, and the people are left to fend for themselves. The situation is desperate, and the government seems to be doing nothing to improve it. The people of Kunduz are suffering greatly, and their voices are not being heard.

By Asmyatari

The decades of war have turned Afghanistan into a barren land. Afghans are forced to stand in the middle of the desert due to a lack of food, water, and healthcare. Many villages have been destroyed, and the people are left to fend for themselves. The situation is desperate, and the government seems to be doing nothing to improve it. The people of Kunduz are suffering greatly, and their voices are not being heard.

By Asmyatari

The decades of war have turned Afghanistan into a barren land. Afghans are forced to stand in the middle of the desert due to a lack of food, water, and healthcare. Many villages have been destroyed, and the people are left to fend for themselves. The situation is desperate, and the government seems to be doing nothing to improve it. The people of Kunduz are suffering greatly, and their voices are not being heard.

By Asmyatari

The decades of war have turned Afghanistan into a barren land. Afghans are forced to stand in the middle of the desert due to a lack of food, water, and healthcare. Many villages have been destroyed, and the people are left to fend for themselves. The situation is desperate, and the government seems to be doing nothing to improve it. The people of Kunduz are suffering greatly, and their voices are not being heard.
Pakistan is losing ground in its efforts to "go after insurgents," military sources said.

The comments seem to support a report in The New York Times that says the Afghan insurgent groups are gaining ground in the country.

"The best thing that can happen to our military is for them to go after the insurgents," the sources said.

The sources also said that the Afghan government is struggling to gain control of the country and that the situation is "critical." They added that the government is "failing to deliver on its promises" and that the population is "losing faith in the government."
Syrian Army, Backed by Iranian Fighters, Advance South of Aleppo: Monitor

IRAN - Iran-backed forcesayer

Iraq Forces Push North in a Bid to Reshape Battlefield

UNITED NATIONS – UNHCR's temporary office in the city has been burned down. The office was located in central Baghdad, the capital of Iraq. The office was destroyed by a mob of Iraqis. The mob, consisting of several hundred people, attacked the UNHCR office and burned it down.

Croatia Divides Migrants to Sweden after Hungary Border Closure

UNITED NATIONS - The UN Agency of Refugees (UNHCR) on Friday said that Iraqis at the border between Iraq and Syria have been eating leftovers in a forest. The agency said that the condition of the Iraqis at the border is very difficult. The agency called on the Iraqi government to provide food and water to the people at the border.

UN Stresses Need for Proper Reception Facilities in Greece

UNITED NATIONS - The UN Refugee Agency (UNHCR) on Friday said that it is working with the Greek authorities to ensure that proper reception facilities are in place for refugees arriving in Greece.

Climate Change Fans Global Security Crisis: Kerry

MILAN - US Secretary of State John Kerry warned Saturday that climate change will be a threat to global security and has raised global tensions in recent years due to the crisis.

US Military Chairman for Israel in Meetings, Avidly Avoids "Israel's" Iran Threat

Jerusalem – The new chairman of the Israeli Defense Forces, Lieutenant General Benny Gantz, was reported on Thursday to have met with Israeli President Reuven Rivlin. Gantz is expected to become the fourth leader of the Israeli military, following the tenure of former Defense Ministers Moshe Yaalon and Ehud Barak.

UN Fears "Catastrophic Consequence" in Fight Between Israelis, Palestinians

The United Nations is warning of a "catastrophic consequence" in the current conflict between Israelis and Palestinians. The UN is calling for an immediate end to the violence and for a negotiated solution to the conflict.

Iran FM Warns of "Humanitarian" Solution for US Report

TEHRAN - Iran’s foreign minister has warned that US reports are a "humanitarian solution." He said that the reports are "reminiscent of the past" and are based on "false information." He added that Iran will not allow any US intervention in the region.

China Upholds Peaceful Negotiation in Handing Disputes: Military Official

BEIJING: China has always played an important role in the region and has always been committed to peaceful negotiations. The Chinese military has always been committed to peaceful negotiations in the region. The Chinese military has always been committed to peaceful negotiations in the region.

Polio Death in Laos Recovered From Erfatilo Polio Around World

VIETNAM - A polio outbreak in a Vietnamese province has been reported. The outbreak has affected several children and has spread to other provinces in the region.

The death has drawn the attention of the Asian Development Bank, the US-based Asia Society, and the ASEAN Regional Human Rights Council. The death has been condemned by the experts and by the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies.

The death has drawn the attention of the World Health Organization, the US-based Asia Society, and the ASEAN Regional Human Rights Council. The death has been condemned by the experts and by the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies.

The death has drawn the attention of the World Health Organization, the US-based Asia Society, and the ASEAN Regional Human Rights Council. The death has been condemned by the experts and by the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies.

The death has drawn the attention of the World Health Organization, the US-based Asia Society, and the ASEAN Regional Human Rights Council. The death has been condemned by the experts and by the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies.
New Study Reveals Massive Crimes Committed in Kunduz

KABUL - The findings of a study by the Afghanistan Independent Human Rights Commission (AIHRC) revealed massive crimes were committed by the Taliban and their affiliates during the 20 years of their rule on the northern city of Kunduz and the surrounding areas.

A report said the Taliban and their affiliates murdered, raped, looted, tortured and burned people, targeted illegal and strategic installations, hospitals, schools and mosques, as well as hanging civilians in civilian areas.

The report said that over 30,000 civilians were killed during the Taliban's period of rule on Kunduz and the surrounding areas.

Germany Decides to Keep Troops in Afghanistan

KABUL - Germany’s defense ministry has announced that its troops will remain in Afghanistan for at least until the end of 2016. The German defense ministry announced that the current number of troops stationed in Afghanistan will be maintained at the same level, but did not provide an explicit timeline on when troops might withdraw.

Germany's foreign affairs minister, Frank-Walter Steinmeier, said that from the beginning of the military mission in Afghanistan, the guiding principle had been that all allied troops that had gone into Afghanistan together would withdraw together.

The German government had planned to withdraw, but the situation in the country had worsened, so the decision was made to keep the troops.

Security Forces Told Taliban Plan to Capture Dowlah Shah District

KABUL - The Taliban have told the Security Forces that they plan to capture Dowlah Shah District in the country. In this regard, the Taliban claimed that ACCI and other concerned organizations participated.

At the event, ACCI and other concerned organizations expressed concern over the prospects of low-quality cell phones which are sold on the black market.

The government should try to prevent instability among the cell phone importers, said Kajjan Alizai, the deputy chief of ACCI.

The ACCI urged the government to prevent the illegal import of cell phones and support the development of its industries.

A number of cell phone sellers welcomed the exhibition and said the mobile phone market in Afghanistan is still in its infancy.

The youth are particularly interested in having the latest technologies and cell phones. They urge us to import more cell phones, particularly in-demand models.

A brand and marketing officer of the cell phone company, said Zainullah, a cell phone seller, that the mobile phone market is still in its infancy.

An unknown armed man invaded the house of a civilian

KABUL - Unknown armed men invaded the house of a civilian in the city of Kabul, all civilians in the eastern province in Ghazni, a military source in Ghazni said.

An unknown armed man invaded the house of a civilian in the city of Kabul, all civilians in the eastern province in Ghazni, a military source in Ghazni said.

Free Afghan Wireless

Afghan Wireless Communication Company Launched 3G in Jalalabad

Afghan Wireless Communication Company launched 3G in Jalalabad.

Afghan Wireless Communication Company announced providing of high speed 3G in the eastern zone of Nangarhar, Kunar and Laghman provinces.

An event held on the occasion of 3G inauguration services in Jalalabad, the White House Hotel, 22/02/2013, Mr. Amin Ramin, managing director, Salam Khan Kunduz Nangarhar governor, chief of Nangarhar provincial council & some members of provincial council, Nangarhar university chancellor, Nangarhar’s ARA chief, chiefs of telecommunications for Nangarhar, Laghman and Kunar provinces, AWC’s regional employees who are working in eastern zone and some other authorities participated.

At the event Mr. Amin Ramin, AWC’s managing director said: "we launched the high speed 3G in Kunar nearly a year before, later on in Kandahar, Helmand and today we are witness of 3G inauguration in eastern zone.

Now, AWC’s consumer and business clients based on the number of subscribers, are one of AWC’s eight customized service plans to talk in the clearest most natural sound possible via AWC’s HD voice services.

AWC’s eastern zone based clients who use AWC’s 3G high speed wireless services, can now send and receive the largest data files, access the fastest download speeds and utilize an array of the most innovative file sharing, streaming, video and data services.

Mr. Amin Ramin added: " AWC is always trying to connect all the Afghanistan throughout the world, as well as this company is providing HD voice and Super Wi-Fi services.

AWC’s managing director Mr. Amin Ramin said: " The extension of AWC’s 3G high speed service in Jalalabad highlights the positive results arising from AWC’s substantial and successful investments in world class high speed wireless solutions and transmission systems. AWC is providing the latest in high speed smartphone support technology by utilizing Dual Carrier-HSPA+(High Speed Packet Access) technology at each of its 3G sites. This solutions enables Dual Carrier-HSPA+ (high speed uplink packet access) for the first time in Afghanistan, permitting uplink data rates of up to 42 Mbps per cell, giving AWC customers the fastest 3G services available."

Later on Nangarhar province governor Salim Khan Kunduz said: " AWC was the first communication company which invested for the first time in the country and it provided the same chance to others to invest in the country as well. AWC has provided many other social services in the region. like: building of schools, clinics & bridges, mosques and eastern zone is one of these areas."

Later on Nangarhar province governor Salim Khan Kunduz said: " AWC was the first communication company which invested for the first time in the country and it provided the same chance to others to invest in the country as well. AWC has provided many other social services in the region. like: building of schools, clinics & bridges, mosques and eastern zone is one of these areas."

Mr. Kunduz said: " today we are witness of high speed 3G internet services inaugu