Outlook

Arms (Apr. 22-Apr. 20)

You’re not one to keep your feelings quiet, yet you might overreact today when childlike you show. By being so frank, you might hurt yourself. Unfortunately, you’re not exactly the easiest person to understand, and you might find yourself being hurt by others as well. Your natural ability to give and receive love is enormous.

Career (Apr. 21-May 20)

The interpersonal dynamics are more complex today, and your temperamental drive may be strong. It’s important that you keep your cool and avoid getting ultrasensitive. A casual and open-ended approach may help you get your point across.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

Sharing your unfiltered desires isn’t an easy task, but you’ll find that you’re more comfortable with the idea of having a passionate relationship with someone. You’re not afraid to be也比较简单，尤其是你对你自己来说。你可能会觉得自己不是很有魅力，因为你的整体气质不那么吸引人。但是，与其他人相比，你在恋爱中的地位可能并不高。在一段长期的关系中，做一些事情倒是可以帮助你提升自己的魅力。你可以尝试更多地关注自己的内在美，以及你对他人的感受。这样会让你更加自信，同时也能吸引对方的注意。

Libra (Sep. 23-Oct. 22)

You might have hidden truths that need to be spoken today. Perhaps, someone in your life is trying to keep something from you, but you might find it’s not as important as you thought it was. Remember that honesty is always the best policy.

Leo (Jul 22-Aug. 21)

You are so confident about what you have reported today, something that has drawn quietly and you’re more inclined to play. It may suddenly make you realize that you’re on the right track as you’re constantly making progress. Oddly enough, you’re simultaneously drawn toward a more cerebral, analytical direction.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

Uncomfortable feelings trigger serious anger when we control a situation, and we often feel that we’re being kept out of the loop. If you end your partner’s presence during the discussion, they might be hurt in the long run. It’s important to be aware of your partner’s feelings and not just give them the silent treatment.

Scorpio (Oct 23-Nov. 21)

Your thoughts shift today as you grow to appreciate the subtlety of your dreams. Memory steps into your awareness, and you see the interplay between the intangible and the real.

The Vulnerability of Afghan Women

By Hujatullah Zia

CONSTITUTIONALLY, only competent courts have the authority to protect a suspect or a criminal. The Constitution of the Afghan states in Article 25 is: "Innocence shall be in untouchable until competency to prove guilt in the country's highest court."

Regardless of the law, every woman in Afghanistan has the right to be protected from violence. Violence against women is widespread in the patriarchal society of Afghanistan, and it is one of the greatest threats to women's rights. Violence against women can occur in different forms, including physical, emotional, and sexual abuse.

In Afghanistan, violence against women is a significant issue. Although there have been some efforts to address this problem, much work still needs to be done.
